About This Game

History says there was a time when the Vikings ruled the world. But legend says it once took only two of them to save it! Join Viking brothers Everand and Boromere as they set off on an all-new, humor-filled adventure to right wrongs, do good and keep their tankards filled with ale!

This won't be easy, as a mysterious force is forging a path of destruction across Earth and Asgard! But Viking strength and valor have never failed – and neither will the brothers!

Your task will be to guide Everand and Boromere with a few clicks of your mouse as they go up against pirates and trolls, rebuild villages, and bring their land back to life by the sweat of their Viking brows. Although the brothers are mighty in muscle, you'll have to do some light mental lifting as you figure out the best way to use the time you have and the resources you gather to remove obstacles and complete simple quests.

With several brightly colored worlds teeming with animated life to explore, level after level will unfold before your eyes like the pages of a fantasy book come to vibrant life. Add in the lively soundtrack, dozens of achievements and captivating hand-drawn cutscenes, and "Viking Brothers 2" becomes a journey you'll never want to end!

Fun little builder game. Click on item needed and watch the Vikings gather or build. Great little time waster. 10/10.. This is a "time management" game, which means some actions are to be performed by the characters controlled by the player, before the allotted time is over. Same concept as the series "12 Labours of Hercules" and "MOAI".

It gets pretty quickly challenging and to get the 3 stars for each level, there's some replaying involved. That can be done any time once a given level is reached on the map.

There are some achievements, which aren't too exotic (they trigger by simply playing the game, mostly).

Graphics are fine and the music is OK (albeit boring over time).

I'm halfway through there and spent more than 3h already. Really enjoying playing this.. Absolutely adore these games. i love little puzzle and strategy games like this. It relaxes me and i find it peaceful to just listen to music or even some youtube vids as background noise while playing this game.
